Chapter 1 - Introduction to Fire Districts in New York State

Fire districts are district corporations and political subdivisions of the State, distinct from the municipalities in which they are located. In general, fire districts are governed by an elected board of fire commissioners and are required to have a treasurer and secretary. The districts have the power to require the levy of taxes on real property and to borrow in their own names.

Fire districts should not be confused with fire companies, fire departments or fire protection districts. The fire company or companies within the district are usually volunteer fire companies incorporated under the provisions of the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law and constitute the fire department of the fire district which is headed by a chief. The fire district commissioners are authorized to adopt rules and regulations governing all fire companies and departments. Fire protection districts, on the other hand, comprise a geographical area of a town which is provided fire protection pursuant to a contract.

This Manual

The responsibility for oversight of fire districts by the State Comptroller is contained in the State Constitution, Article 3 of the General Municipal Law and the Town Law. Among other things, the State Comptroller's responsibilities include: performing audits, prescribing information to be included in annual financial reports and prescribing a uniform system of accounts for fire district accounting and reporting.

The Office of the State Comptroller (OSC) has compiled this manual as a comprehensive accounting and reporting guide for fire district officials and others interested in accounting and financial reporting by fire districts in New York State. The manual provides an overview of accounting and financial reporting principles to be used by fire districts to account for and report their financial activities.

Fire districts with $500,000 or more of revenues (excluding borrowings) are required to maintain their accounting records and report their financial activities on a double-entry modified accrual basis of accounting, and account for current assets, current liabilities and fund balances of the district.

Revenues will be recognized in the accounting period in which they are available and measurable, and expenditures will generally be recognized in the accounting period in which the liability is actually incurred (See Chapter 6). Fire districts with less than $500,000 of revenues (excluding borrowings) may continue to maintain their accounting records and report their financial activities to OSC on a single-entry cash basis of accounting but will be required to report cash and fund balances for each of the districts' operating funds (See Chapter 5).

For additional information regarding fire districts, visit the State Comptroller's website at www.osc.state.ny.us/localgov/firedist/index.htm

Chapter 2 - Funds

The Uniform System of Accounts for Fire Districts is prescribed for all fire districts in New York State. The System of Accounts provides for a standard chart of accounts and fund structure. This accounting system is intended to serve many purposes. Primarily, it should furnish fire district officials with an effective aid in financial management. It should also serve the taxpayers by providing a structure for comprehensive records of fire district operations and it should provide information for program planning and statistical analysis.

Fire District Funds

In government, moneys generated for specific purposes generally must be segregated in the accounting records and used only for those specific purposes. To help demonstrate that such moneys are used for the intended purposes, fire districts and all other local governments are required to use the fund accounting concepts specified in Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

A fund is a fiscal and accounting entity with a self-balancing set of accounts recording cash and other financial resources, together with all related liabilities and fund balances, and charges therein, which are segregated for the purpose of carrying on specific activities or attaining certain objectives in accordance with special regulations, restrictions or limitations.

The funds available for use by fire districts are:

Code	Funds
A	General
H	Capital Projects
R	Reserve (cash basis only)
V	Debt Service
PN	Permanent
TE	Private-Purpose Trust
TC	Custodial Fund

Fire districts should establish and maintain only the minimum number of funds consistent with legal and operating requirements.

General Fund (A)

The General Fund is the major operating fund of a fire district and includes all revenues and expenditures not accounted for and reported in another fund.

Revenues are classified by source.

Expenditures are classified to separately show the amounts expended for personal services, capital outlay, contractual, debt service and other expenditures, and other special items for which a separate classification is desired.

Capital Projects Fund (H)

The Capital Projects Fund is used to account for and report financial resources that are restricted, or assigned to expenditures for capital outlays, including the acquisition or construction of capital facilities and other capital assets. Separate accounting records must be maintained for each capital project and should contain sufficient information to track and report the project's complete financial history (i.e. resources received and expended).

The use of separate accounting records helps to ensure that debt proceeds related to capital expenditures are used for their intended purpose. Section 165.00 of the Local Finance Law requires that proceeds of these types of obligations be deposited in a separate bank account, and expended only for the object or purpose for which issued. This fund must also be used to account for construction projects financed, in whole or in part, from General Fund or Reserve Fund moneys.

Principal and interest payments on capital borrowings are paid from appropriations from the General Fund and not from the Capital Projects Fund, except when bond anticipation notes are redeemed from the proceeds of bonds. Interest on bond anticipation notes may be charged to the capital project if the board of commissioners authorizes it by resolution.

Reserve Funds (R,A)

In general, reserves are designed to segregate resources to provide for future contingencies and plan for major capital outlays, thereby reducing the need to rely on borrowing or outlays of current funds to finance such events.

The following reserve funds are established in accordance with General Municipal Law provisions:

Repair Reserve (Section 6-d)	Insurance Reserve (Section 6-n)
Contingency and Tax Stabilization Reserve (Section 6-e)	Workers' Compensation Reserve (Section 6-j)
Capital Reserve (Section 6-g)	Unemployment Insurance Reserve (Section 6-m)
Reserve for Payment on Bonded Indebtedness (Section 6-h)	Employee Benefit Accrued Liability Reserve (Section 6-p)
Mandatory Reserve (Section 6-l)	Retirement Contribution Reserve (Section 6-r)

For detailed information regarding these reserves, refer to our Local Government Management Guide entitled Reserve Funds.

When using the single-entry cash basis of accounting, a separate fund account must be maintained for each reserve (R). For the double-entry modified accrual basis of accounting, legally established reserves are accounted for in the General Fund (A).

Expenditures may be made only for the purpose for which the reserve was established. The limitation on expenditures in Section 176(18) of the Town Law does not apply to transfers to, or expenditures from most but not all, of these reserves.

The principal sources of revenue for these funds are budgetary appropriations. For districts using the cash-basis of accounting to comply with the law, the amount appropriated should be transferred from the General Fund to the Reserve Fund.

Any interest or earnings on deposits and investments of reserve moneys is credited to the Reserve Fund.

Debt Service Fund (V)

The Debt Service Fund is provided to account for and report financial resources that are restricted or assigned to expenditures for the payment of principal and interest on long-term debt. Financial resources that are being accumulated for principal and interest maturing in future years also should be reported in this fund. Debt Service Funds are not required unless segregation of resources is legally mandated. Resources legally required to be segregated include:

- Proceeds from sales of property on which debt is outstanding.
- State and Federal aid received for a project on which debt is outstanding.
- Interest earned on investment of proceeds of long-term debt which were not budgeted as a source of financing for the project.
- Unexpended proceeds of long-term debt.

Taxes levied for debt service may be credited directly to this fund or transferred from other funds.

Proceeds from the sale of advance refunding bonds and the subsequent payment to the trustee bank must be recorded in this fund.

A single Debt Service Fund must be maintained; however, subsidiary records must be maintained for individual debt issuances.

Permanent Fund (PN)

A Permanent Fund is used to account for resources that are legally restricted to the extent that only earnings, not principal, may be used for purposes that benefit the local government.

Fiduciary Funds (TE, TC)

Fiduciary Funds are provided to account for moneys received by the fire district treasurer which must be held for purposes other than operation of the fire district or which must be paid to other governments or persons.

There are two Fiduciary Funds. The prefix “TE” is used to identify Private-Purpose Trust Funds and the prefix “TC” is used to identify Custodial Funds.

Private-Purpose Trust Funds (TE) account for trust arrangements where the government itself is not a beneficiary, the assets are dedicated to providing benefits to recipients in accordance with the benefit terms and are legally protected from creditors of the government.

Custodial Funds (TC) account for fiduciary activities that are not required to be reported in a private-purpose trust fund.

Capital Assets and Long-Term Liabilities (K, W)

Non-Current Governmental Assets (K) – Accounts established to account for capital assets.

Non-Current Governmental Liabilities (W) – Accounts established to account for the unmatured general long-term debt and liabilities which are not recorded as liabilities in another fund.

Chapter 3 - Classification and Coding Structure

Fire districts in New York State are required to use a standard system for classifying and coding accounting transactions.

Classification:

A classification of accounts is a systematic arrangement of accounts based upon a definite scheme. The purpose of classifying accounts is to provide a standard format for recording and reporting financial transactions which allows comparisons to be made with other fire districts or other financial periods. The classification system serves as a basis for budgeting, accounting and reporting, as well as for administrative control purposes, accountability to the Office of the State Comptroller and the general public, cost accounting, and the compilation of financial statistical data on the state level.

Coding:

Coding of accounts facilitates the classification of data on source documents and the posting of entries in the accounting records. It enables identification of transactions quickly and provides consistency in reporting. The coding system used in New York State is an alphanumeric system - a letter or combination of letters followed by a series of digits.

The alpha portion of each code, consisting of one or two letters, identifies the fund. The following funds are provided for fire districts in New York State:

Fund	Alpha Code
General	A
Capital Projects	H
Reserve - cash basis only	R
Debt Service	V
Permanent	PN
Private-Purpose Trust	TE
Custodial Fund	TC

The numeric portion of each code, which immediately follows the alpha portion, identifies general ledger, revenue and expenditure/expense accounts. The same account code number, where applicable, is used in all funds.

General ledger codes have three digits and are arranged in balance sheet order: assets, deferred outflows of resources, liabilities, deferred inflows of resources and fund equity.

100 – 499	Assets and Deferred Outflows of Resources
600 – 799	Liabilities and Deferred Inflows of Resources
800 – 999	Fund Equity

For example, 200 identifies the asset CASH in each fund. A200 identifies the asset CASH in the GENERAL FUND.

Revenue codes have four digits and are arranged by source (where the revenue originated):

1000 – 2999	Local Sources
3000 – 3999	State Sources
4000 – 4999	Federal Sources
5000 – 5999	Interfund Transfers and Proceeds of Obligations

Each category is further subdivided to better identify the revenue source. For example, 2401 identifies INTEREST AND EARNINGS in each fund. GENERAL FUND INTEREST AND EARNINGS would be classified A2401.

Expenditure codes have a minimum of 5 digits and are arranged by functional unit and object of expenditure. The term function refers to the primary classification and description of the purpose of the expenditure. The first four digits identify the function:

1000 – 1999	General Support
3000 – 3999	Fire Protection
9000 – 9099	Employee Benefits
9700 – 9799	Debt Service
9900 – 9999	Interfund Transfers

Each function is further subdivided to better classify the expenditure. For example, expenditure code 3410 in the Fire Protection function identifies expenditures incurred for firefighting and fire protection activities.

Expenditures should be further classified by character, that is, on the basis of the fiscal period they are presumed to benefit. The major character classifications are current, capital outlay and debt service.

Character classifications may be accomplished by grouping the object classifications, discussed below, which are subdivisions of the character classification.

The object of the expenditure (the fifth digit in the code) is a secondary classification and identifies the item purchased or service obtained in order to carry out a function. The object is identified by the fifth digit:

.1	Personal Services
.2	Equipment and Capital Outlay
.4	Contractual and Other
.6	Debt Service Principal
.7	Debt Service Interest
.8	Employee Benefits
.9	Interfund Transfers
.0	Total for Reporting Purposes

Code 3410 from above can then be further classified as A3410.4 indicating a GENERAL FUND expenditure for CONTRACTUAL SERVICES for fire protection.

Basic Objects of Expenditure

The types of expenditures chargeable to basic objects of expenditure are indicated below. This list cannot possibly specify every type of expenditure which might be incurred, and should be considered a guide in classifying items not listed. If more detailed accounting information is desired, the fire districts may use this list as a guide to subdividing the basic objects of expenditure.

.1 Personal Services

- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Treasurer-Secretary
- Firefighter
- Janitor
- Vacation
- Temporary
- Overtime
- Sick Leave

.2 Equipment and Capital Outlay

- Furniture and Furnishings

.8 Employee Benefits

- State Retirement System
- Fire Retirement
- Local Pension Fund
- Hospital and Medical Insurance
- Life Insurance
- Workers' Compensation
- Social Security
- Disability Insurance

Control account codes are used to record the aggregate of debit and credit postings to a number of related accounts called subsidiary accounts. Control account codes have three digits. Code 522 Expenditures is used to record claims, vouchers and payrolls paid or accrued, including those of special reserves. Code 980 Revenues is used to record revenues, including those of special reserves.

Chapter 4 - Budgeting

The board of fire commissioners is required annually to adopt a fire district budget setting detailed estimates of the amount of revenues to be received and expenditures to be made during the fiscal year for which the budget is proposed [Town Law, §181(1)]. However, care must be taken to stay within the district's statutory spending limitation. Pursuant to Section 176(18) of the Town Law, fire districts should annually calculate the district's statutory spending limitation to ensure that the district does not exceed the maximum amount which may be expended by the district without voter approval. To assist you in preparing the district's annual budget and calculating the district's statutory spending limitation, sample forms and worksheets are included on the following pages.

In 2011, legislation established a tax levy limit (tax cap) that affects all "local governments", including fire districts. Under this legislation, the real property taxes levied by fire districts (and other classes of local governments) generally cannot increase by more than 2 percent of the prior year levy, or the rate of inflation, whichever is less. However, the law allows local governments to levy an additional amount for excludable expenditures. Fire districts can override the tax cap by passing a resolution; with a vote of 60% of the total voting power of the board.

Budget Preparation

The board of fire commissioners must adopt a proposed budget and, subject to certain public hearing requirements, hold a public hearing on the proposed budget on the third Tuesday in October. The proposed budget must be adopted by resolution of the board of fire commissioners on or before the 21st day prior to the public hearing. At least five days prior to the date of the hearing, notice of the hearing must be published at least once in the fire district's official newspaper or in a newspaper having general circulation within the district¹. Similarly, at least five days prior to the date of the hearing, a copy of the notice must be posted on the signboard maintained by the town clerk of each of the towns in which the fire district is located. The notice must also be posted on the municipal and/or fire district websites, if such websites exist. The notice must state the time and place where the hearing will be held, the purpose of the hearing, and that a copy of the proposed budget is available for inspection during office hours in the offices of the fire district secretary and the town clerk in each town in which the district is located. For a fire district that maintains a website, the notice of hearing must also state that the proposed budget is posted there as well.

After the public hearing, the board of fire commissioners can adopt changes, alterations, and revisions to the proposed budget. The budget must be adopted by November 4th and filed, along with the district's fund balance statement to the town clerk of each town in which the fire district is located by November 7th. Neither the town budget officer nor the town board may make changes to the fire district budget. The town budget officer is required to attach the adopted budget, to the annual town budget. The fire district budget, as attached to the annual town budget, will be sent to the county for the levy of taxes for fire district purposes. Joint fire districts must also file a certified copy with the clerk of each village in which the district is located. Once the budget is adopted, it becomes a public document that the district secretary must make available to the public. The district secretary is required to reproduce a sufficient number of copies for distribution to the public upon request, without charge.

Accounting for the Budget

Budgetary accounting is a management control technique used to assist in controlling expenditures and tracking revenues. This technique is important, as the annual budget is a legal compliance standard against which the operations of government are evaluated.

The following are the budgetary accounts prescribed by OSC:

510	Estimated Revenues
511	Appropriated Reserves and Restricted Fund Balance
521	Encumbrances
530	Obligations Authorized
599	Appropriated Fund Balance
960	Appropriations
962	Budgetary Provisions for Other Purposes

Separate accounts must be maintained for each appropriation, showing the amount appropriated, the amounts expended, and the unexpended balance. Expenditures can only be made, and contracts involving money can only be entered into, if an amount has been appropriated for the particular purpose and is either available for that purpose or has been authorized to be borrowed.

Modifying for the Budget

Fire district treasurers must notify the board of fire commissioners when it is probable that available money will not be sufficient to cover the amounts appropriated. The board may reduce appropriations in order to prevent a deficiency, but an appropriation cannot be reduced below the minimum amount required by law to be appropriated, and it cannot be reduced below outstanding and unpaid claims that are chargeable to the appropriation.

Subject to limitations in Town Law Section 181-a(4), the board of fire commissioners can make additional appropriations or increase existing appropriations through the following methods²:

- Transferring from the unexpended balance of other appropriations,
- Transferring from unassigned or assigned fund balance, as appropriate,
- Appropriating funds from unanticipated revenues,
- Borrowing pursuant to local finance law.

The rules described above do not apply to gifts that are required to be expended for particular purposes, and to property insurance proceeds that are used to repair or replace the property. These items can be appropriated by the board at any time for these purposes.

² The board cannot add or increase an appropriation to a capital reserve fund.

COMPUTATION OF STATUTORY SPENDING LIMITATION

Divide the assessed valuation of the real property subject to taxation by the fire district (as shown on each town's assessment roll, for which the district levies taxes, completed two calendar years before the expenditures are to be made), by the town equalization rate established for each roll by the State Office of Real Property Services.

(Example: For budget prepared in year 2 (current year) and taxes to be raised and expended in year 3 (next year), use assessment roll completed in year 1 (last year) divided by the town equalization rate established for this assessment roll. Note: A different equalization rate is established for each year's assessment roll.)

Chapter 5 - Financial Reporting

Governmental accounting is concerned with the collection and analysis of a government's finances. This information has very little value if it cannot be communicated in a timely and effective manner. Financial reporting serves as the link between a fire district's financial information and the district's users they are designed to serve. Some of these users include the board of fire commissioners and oversight bodies, investors, creditors, taxpayers and OSC.

Internal Reporting

Internal reporting typically is designed to accomplish two goals:

- To allow management to monitor compliance with legal and contractual provisions applicable to the management of public funds.
- To provide management with information on current performance that it needs to make future financial plans.

Because internal reports are designed expressly to serve the needs of management, management is free to select whatever format or content it believes most relevant. It is highly unusual for internal reports to be prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Annual Financial Report - AUD

All fire districts in New York State are required to prepare and file an annual financial report, commonly referred to as the Annual Update Document (AUD), with the State Comptroller within 60 days after the close of each fiscal year. The AUD includes fund financial statements, notes to the financial statements and other supplemental schedules that inquire about financial-related issues of the district. The State Comptroller provides instructions for filing the report to all chief fiscal officers prior to the completion of the district's fiscal year.

Audited Financial Statements

Fire districts with annual revenues of $400,000³ or more must obtain an independent audit annually. The audit must include, but is not limited to, the district's financial condition and resources, and such other things as the State Comptroller designates. A copy of the audit report must be given to the fire commissioners, the town board(s) of municipalities served by the fire district and OSC within 180 days of the end of the fiscal year audited.

Fire companies that contract with municipalities or fire districts to provide fire services and have revenues of more than $400,000, must also obtain an annual audit of revenues and expenditures in connection with such contract or contracts. The audit must indicate whether the fire company has filed IRS form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, and any report required pursuant to Section 30-a of the General Municipal Law (receipts and disbursements of foreign fire insurance premium tax moneys). If such filings are required, but not made, the audit must examine all revenues, expenditures and resources from any source. Upon completion of the audit, a certified copy must be provided to the fire company and the contracting municipality within 180 days of the end of the fiscal year.

Fire districts or fire companies with annual revenues of less than $400,000 may obtain independent audits, but are not required to do so. This threshold, however, does not exempt fire districts or fire companies from any statutory reporting requirements discussed above.

All fire district audits must be conducted in accordance with standards applicable to financial audits prescribed in the Government Auditing Standards (GAGAS) issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. OSC does not require that local governments fulfill their statutory filing requirements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and will continue to accept the annual financial reports with fund level statements in accordance with the Uniform System of Accounts (USA).

Fire Districts that prepare their financial statements in conformity with the USA, a regulatory basis of accounting prescribed by OSC, may have audits conducted in accordance with the AICPA's Statements on Auditing Standards. Those districts that have adopted GAAP reporting should continue to have their statements audited in accordance with GAGAS.

All fire company audits must be conducted in accordance with the AICPA Not-for-Profit Audit and Accounting Guide.

Length of Service Awards Program (LOSAP) Audits

If a district sponsors a LOSAP, they or the designated program administrator of the LOSAP must obtain an annual audit by an independent certified public accountant. A copy of the audit must be given to the program sponsor and to the State Comptroller. LOSAP audits must be completed within 270 days of the end of the sponsor's fiscal year. Due to other legislative requirements, fire districts may choose to fulfill this requirement by providing the appropriate service award program note disclosure as part of the district's annual audited statements, which must be completed within 180 days of the end of the fiscal year.

Chapter 6 - Single-Entry Cash: Fire Districts

The single-entry cash basis of accounting may be used by fire districts with less than $500,000 of revenues. Cash basis generally means that no financial transaction is recorded in the accounting records of the district unless cash has been received or disbursed. Cash is the only asset measured and reported in the financial statements. Districts are also required to report their cash and fund balance (they should be equal) on a balance sheet for each operating fund used by the districts. When the single-entry cash basis of accounting is used, reserve fund moneys will be reported in a separate fund (R) and not as part of the general fund. Additionally, there are two fiduciary funds available – the TC fund and the TE fund. Both the TC and TE funds, however, use the accrual basis of accounting whereby transactions are recognized when they occur regardless of when cash is received or disbursed. These funds are available for use by Fire Districts in the AUD.

The Chart of Accounts listed below and on the following pages show the balance sheet, revenue and expenditure accounts used under the single-entry cash basis of accounting.

Chapter 7 - Double-Entry Modified Accrual: Fire Districts

Fire districts with revenues of $500,000 or more are required to use the modified accrual basis of accounting, rather than the single-entry cash basis of accounting. The modified accrual basis is unique to governments.

Under this method of accounting, revenues and other financial resources are recognized when they become susceptible to accrual, which is when they become both measurable and available to finance expenditures of the current fiscal year. Measurable refers to the ability to quantify in monetary terms the amount of the revenue. Available means collectible within the current fiscal year or shortly after the fiscal year end to pay liabilities of the current year. Expenditures, with certain exceptions such as debt service payments, are recognized when the fund liability is incurred.

The measurement focus refers to what is measured and reported in the financial statements. The current financial resources measurement focus that fire districts use classifies assets as spendable resources such as cash and other assets that generally will be converted to cash or consumed during the applicable accounting period. Liabilities, such as accounts payable, are generally paid during the applicable accounting period or soon thereafter.

For reporting purposes, all reserve fund activity will initially be accounted for and reported in the general fund as opposed to the separate reserve fund used by districts using the single-entry cash basis of accounting.

The Chart of Accounts available for the double-entry modified accrual basis of accounting is far more extensive than the Chart of Accounts for the single-entry cash basis of accounting. As a result, the most current and up-to-date available account codes, including a breakout of codes by available funds, in the AUD can be found by visiting OSC's interactive Chart of Accounts Query and the Chart of Accounts Print Version document.

H521	Encumbrances
	H3410.2 Fire, Equip & Cap Outlay	$10,000
	H821 Reserve for Encumbrances			$10,000

Note: The district will encumber the 10 percent retainage and then release it to the contractors and recognize the expenditure upon the satisfactory completion of the work.

33b To record retainage in the supplemental schedule of non-current governmental liabilities:
		Debit	Credit
W129	Total Non-Current Governmental Liabilities	$10,000
	W605 Retained Percentages, Contracts Payable		$10,000

34 To record the receipt of eligible securities from a contractor, equal to the amount of retainage, as security for the release of the cash due to the contractor:
		Debit	Credit
H455	Securities and Mortgages	$10,000
	H200 Cash		$10,000

Note: GML allows fire districts to release the cash retained upon the request of the contractor and the contractor's replacement of the cash with bonds, notes, or other obligations guaranteed by the United States, New York State, or any political subdivision of New York State.

35a To record the sale of bonds:
		Sub Account	Debit	Credit
H200	Cash		$125,000
	H980 Revenues			$125,000
	H5710 Serial Bonds	$125,000

35b	In addition to the entry above, the following entry will be made on the Schedule of Non-Current Governmental Liabilities:
		Debit	Credit
	W129 Total Non-Current Government Liabilities	125,000

	H9901.9 Transfers, Other Funds	$44,000
	H200 Cash		$44,000
Note: If the unexpended balance is required to be used to pay off the debt on the capital projects fund, it should be transferred to the Debt Service Fund. If not, it should be transferred to the General Fund.

Chapter 9 - Account Code Definitions

General Ledger Account Codes

101 Land

The cost of land acquired by a district for its own use. If the land is purchased, the amount reported is to include the purchase price and incidental costs incurred to put the land in condition for its intended use, such as legal fees and excavating costs. For donated land, the district should report the land's fair market value at the time of acquisition.

Site improvements acquired with the land may be reported in this account unless depreciation on such improvements is required.

102 Buildings

The cost of acquiring a building or making additions and improvements to existing buildings by a district. The cost of fixtures permanently attached to the structure must also be reported in this account.

The cost of repairs and maintenance to a building should not be reported in this account. These costs should be recognized as an expense when incurred.

103 Improvements Other than Buildings (Optional)

The cost of site improvement with a limited life (where replacement will be required in the future. Such improvements may include paving, fencing, and landscaping.

104 Machinery and Equipment

The cost of machinery and equipment, including trade-in allowance. For donated machinery and equipment, the appraised value should be used.

105 Construction Work in Progress (Optional)

The costs made during the fiscal year on a building or other project that will not be completed at the close of the period.

107 Other Capital Assets

The costs of capital assets that do not fit into the description of one of the previously stated assets.

108 Net Pension Asset – Proportionate Share

A district's proportionate share of net pension assets from NYSLRS.

112 Accumulated Depreciation – Buildings (Optional)

A contra-asset account for account code 102- Buildings. If used, the individual property record cards must reflect the depreciation charge details.

113 Accumulated Depreciation – Improvements Other than Buildings (Optional)

A contra-asset account for account code 103- Improvements Other than Buildings. If used, the individual property record cards must reflect the depreciation charge details.

114 Accumulated Depreciation – Equipment (Optional)

A contra-asset account for account code 104- Machinery and Equipment. If used, the individual property record cards must reflect the depreciation charge details.

117 Accumulated Depreciation – Other Capital Assets (Optional)

129 Total Non-Current Government Liabilities

Reflects the total amount of non-current liabilities reported on the Schedule of Non-Current Government Liabilities (W).

159 Total Non-Current Government Assets

Reflects the total amount of non-current assets reported on the Schedule of Non-Current Government Assets (K).

200 Cash

The total amount of cash held by the district, except for cash recorded in another cash account listed below. Segregation of cash in separate bank accounts is generally not required.

201 Cash in Time Deposits

Cash deposited and held in interest-bearing time deposit accounts or in time certificates of deposit.

210 Petty Cash

Cash maintained in a district's petty cash fund. The petty cash fund includes moneys set aside to make change or pay small obligations when the issuance of a formal voucher or check is not cost effective.

221 Cash for Tax Anticipation Notes

Cash set aside for the payment of tax anticipation notes. An analysis of the account should be maintained showing, separately, the cash applicable to each year of tax levy.

222 Cash for Revenue Anticipation Notes

Cash set aside for payment of revenue anticipation notes.

223 Cash with Fiscal Agent

Cash held by the fiscal agent for payment on principal and interest on outstanding obligations. The balance should agree with the balance in 629 Bond Interest and Matured Bonds Payable, and should be reconciled with the bank account.

225 Cash for Deficiency Note

Cash set aside for payment of deficiency notes.

230 Cash, Special Reserves

Cash held in special reserve funds that were established pursuant to General Municipal Law.

An analysis or a subsidiary account should be maintained to segregate the cash balance of each special reserve fund.

231 Cash in Time Deposits, Special Reserves

The portion of reserve fund cash that was deposited in interest-bearing time deposit accounts or in time certificates of deposit.

380 Accounts Receivable

Amounts owed to a district from private individuals or organizations for goods or services rendered (but not including amounts due from other funds or governments).

A subsidiary record should be maintained for each debtor.

This account should be reviewed monthly to determine if any charges are overdue. If they remain unpaid after diligent effort to collect, appropriate action should be taken to enforce payment.

381 Accrued Interest Receivable

Amounts due for accrued interest included in the purchase price of bonds or other securities between interest dates.

391 Due from Other Funds

Amounts owed to a particular fund by another fund. An analysis of this account, or subsidiary accounts, will be maintained to show the amounts due from each fund.

410 Due from State and Federal Government

Amounts due to a district (such as aid or reimbursement) from the State or Federal government. Adjustments to this account should be supported by correspondence from the agencies concerned.

440 Due from Other Governments

Amounts due from other governments, other than the State or Federal government. Subsidiary accounts should be maintained.

445 Inventory

Bulk purchases made by a district. The balance represents the value of materials in inventory

450 Investments in Securities

Investments in securities, other than certificates of deposit, special time deposits, repurchase agreements and securities purchased from reserve funds.

A subsidiary record should be maintained detailing the specifics of each investment.

451 Investments in Repurchase Agreements

Investments in repurchase agreements for all moneys other than those of special reserves. A repurchase agreement is entered into when a district purchases securities from a financial institution and in return the financial institution promises to repurchase the securities at the purchase price plus interest at a future date.

Any excess over the purchase price will be credited to 980 Revenues and then sub-account 2401 Interest and Earnings.

452 Investments in Securities, Special Reserves

Investments of special reserve moneys in securities other than certificates of deposit, special time deposits and repurchase agreements.

Any excess over the purchase price will be credited to 980 Revenues and then sub-account 2401 Interest and Earnings.

453 Investments in Repurchase Agreements, Special Reserves

Investments of special reserve moneys in repurchase agreements.

Any excess over the purchase price will be credited to 980 Revenues and then sub-account 2401 Interest and Earnings.

455 Securities & Mortgages

The value of securities and mortgages held by the fiscal officer.

456 Accrued Interest on Securities

This account is only available in private-purpose trust and custodial funds and contains the amount of accrued interest earned on securities.

458 Real Property

The balance will represent the value of real property held by the fiscal officer. Subsidiary detail sufficient to identify the real property will be maintained.

459 Securities & Mortgage Bank Collateral

This account is only available in the custodial fund and represents the market value of securities pledged as collateral to secure deposits.

460 Deferred Compensation Plan Assets

This account is only available in private-purpose trust and custodial funds and represents assets held by a plan administrator for an independently administered deferred compensation plan established pursuant to IRS Code Section 457.

461 Service Award Program Assets

Assets held by the district or program administrator for a service award program established pursuant to General Municipal Law, Article 11-A.

Adjustments to this account may be made during the year or at fiscal year's end.

480 Prepaid Expenses

Payment made by a district in advance for goods and services.

489 Miscellaneous Current Assets

Those assets that do not fit in any other current asset categories.

495 Deferred Outflows of Resources

Assets consumed by a district that are applicable to a future reporting period.

510N Estimated Revenues (Budgetary Code Only)

A budgetary account a district must use to record and summarize budgetary revenues, not actual revenues, expected to be received in the current fiscal year.

511N Appropriated Reserves and Restricted Fund Balance (Budgetary Code Only)

A budgetary account a district must use to record the amount of special reserves appropriated in the current year's budget. An analysis of the account should be maintained to segregate the amounts appropriated from each special reserve. Additionally, this account should be used to record the funding of the annual benefits and annual administrative fees to be paid out of the LOSAP during the current year.

521 Encumbrances (Internal Accounting Code Only)

The balance in this account represents the total outstanding encumbrances; the details will be maintained in the subsidiary appropriation ledger.

Encumbrances are obligations in the form of purchase orders or contracts. They are not expenditures or liabilities, but represent the estimated amount of expenditures likely to result if the purchase order/ contracts are completed.

522 Expenditures

A control account a district must use to record all expenditures made during the year. Details of this account must be maintained in the subsidiary appropriation-expenditure ledger.

599N Appropriated Fund Balance (Budgetary Code Only)

A budgetary account a district must use to record the amount of fund balance appropriated in the current year's budget.

600 Accounts Payable

Amounts a district owes to private individuals, firms or corporations for goods or services received.

601 Accrued Liabilities

This account is used at the close of the fiscal year to accrue the liability for payroll expenditures chargeable to the current fiscal year, but not due and payable until the following fiscal year.

Expenditures for which vouchers or bills have been received should be credited to 600 Accounts Payable, 630 Due to Other Funds, or 631 Due to Other Governments according to the character of the vendor (i.e., commercial, interfund or other government).

605 Retained Percentages, Contracts Payable

Amounts withheld from construction progress payments until satisfactory completion of the work. These amounts will be recorded in the schedule of non-current governmental liabilities.

619 State or Authority Loans Payable

Amounts owed to New York State for loans that were received by a district.

620 Tax Anticipation Notes Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding notes issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes levied against real property. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

621 Revenue Anticipation Notes Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding notes issued in anticipation of collection of revenue other than real property taxes. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

622 Budget Notes Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding notes issued to finance unanticipated expenditures. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

623 Term Bonds Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding term bonds. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

624 Deficiency Notes Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding notes issued to finance a deficiency in any fund where actual revenues were less than the amount estimated in the budget. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

626 Bond Anticipation Notes Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding notes issued for which bonds have been authorized. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

627 Capital Notes Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of outstanding notes issued for which bonds may be issued. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

628 Bonds Payable

The balance in this account reflects the face value of bonds outstanding. A note register must be maintained pursuant to Local Finance Law, §163.00.

629 Bond Interest and Matured Bonds Payable

This account should reflect any unpaid principal and interest on mature bonds. The balance in this account should agree with the balance in account code 223 Cash with Fiscal Agent.

630 Due to Other Funds

Amounts owed to a particular fund by another fund. An analysis of this account should be maintained to identify the amount due to each fund.

631 Due to Other Governments

Amounts owed to other government units. A subsidiary record should be maintained to show the liability to each unit of government.

637 Due to Employees' Retirement System

Amounts owed to the New York State and Local Retirement System and the New York State Police and Fire Retirement System.

638 Net Pension Liability – Proportionate Share

The liability of employers and nonemployer contributing entities to employees for benefits provided through a defined benefit pension/OPEB plan that is administered through a trust and is restricted to paying benefits to current employees, retirees, and their beneficiaries.

651 Accrued Interest Payable

Interest costs that have been incurred but are not due until a later date.

683 Other Post-Employment Benefits

Post-employment benefits, other than pensions, a district expects to pay.

685 Installment Purchase Debt

Amounts due for installment purchase debt.

686 Judgments and Claims Payable

Amounts due as a result of judgments or court decisions.

687 Compensated Absences

Absences, such as vacation or sick leave, for which a district expects to pay its employees.

Unless sick leave vests, it is not required to include the value of accumulated sick leave. Vested rights are those for which the employer has an obligation to make payment even if an employee terminates; thus, they are not contingent on an employee's future service.

688 Other Liabilities (Specify)

This account may be used to record any other current liabilities that are not represented in the above categories.

689 Other Long-Term Debt (Specify)

This account may be used to record other long-term debt that is not represented in any of the above categories. For example, a non-cancelable operating lease of more than one year should be reported in this account.

690 Overpayments & Clearing Account

This account is used to record overpayments.

691 Deferred Inflows of Resources

Assets acquired by a district that are applicable to a future reporting period.

694 Deferred Taxes

Taxes received by a district that are applicable to a future reporting period.

695 Deferred Tax Revenue – Reserve for Excess

The amount of real property tax revenue that a district must place in a reserve pursuant to Chapter 97 of the Laws of 2011.

710 Consolidated Payroll

This account consolidates the various withholding liability accounts to show the total balance of payroll related liabilities.

713 Service Award Program Payable

When a program administrator is retained, the accounts are handled as custodial funds with TC designations. When the program is administered by the fire district, the accounts are handled as a private-purpose trust. As such, the accounts will be designated as TE.

716 Individual Retirement Account

The balance in this account represents payroll deductions pending remittal to the retirement plan administrator.

717 Deferred Compensation

If in a fiduciary fund, the balance in this account represents amount of cash and securities held by Deferred Compensation Plan Providers. If in the general fund, the balance in this account represents payroll deductions pending remittal to the Deferred Compensation Plan Providers.

718 State Retirement

The balance in this account represents payroll deductions pending remittal to the State for normal contributions, loan repayments, and arrears payments.

719 Disability Insurance

The balance of this account represents amounts accumulated for payment of disability insurance contracts.

720 Group Insurance

The balance of this account represents amounts accumulated for payment of group insurance contracts.

Appropriate subsidiary accounts will be required to identify the amounts applicable to each type of group insurance contract.

721 New York State Income Tax

The balance of this account represents payroll deductions pending remittance to the State. Support detail will be maintained on each person's earnings record showing deductions for the payroll period.

722 Federal Income Tax

This account is not required to be used when payroll deductions are deposited immediately in a bank to the credit of the Federal government. It will be used when direct payment is made to the Internal Revenue Service, or when deposits are made to the credit of the Federal government for two or more payrolls.

The balance will represent payroll deductions pending remittance to the Internal Revenue Service, or subsequent transmittal to a designated depository. Supporting detail will be maintained on each person's earnings record showing deductions for each payroll period.

723 Income Executions

The balance of this account represents deductions from earnings for garnishees pending remittance to the sheriff or other officer.

Subsidiary records are required to identify the amounts deducted with the related executions. Fees for filing an execution or for modifying or vacating an execution will be credited directly to revenue in the General Fund.

724 Association and Union Dues

The balance of this account represents payroll deductions for dues pending remittance to the association or organization of civil service employees.

Supporting detail will be maintained on each person's earnings record showing deductions for each payroll period.

725 U.S. Savings Bonds

The balance of this account represents payroll deductions for the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds pending the purchase of such bonds. A subsidiary account will be maintained for each officer or employee showing the detail of deductions credited to their account, disbursements made therefrom and the balance remaining.

726 Social Security Tax

This account is not required to be used when payroll deductions are deposited immediately in a bank to the credit of the Federal government. It will be used when direct payment is made to the Internal Revenue Service, or when deposits are made to the credit of the Federal government for two or more payrolls.

The balance of this account represents payroll deductions and the local share pending remittance to the Internal Revenue Service, or subsequent transmittal to a designated repository. Supporting detail will be maintained on each person's earnings record showing deductions for each payroll period.

728 NYC Income Tax

The balance of this account represents payroll deductions pending remittance to New York City. Support detail will be maintained on each person's earnings record showing deductions for the payroll period.

729 Employee Annuities

The balance of this account represents payroll deductions pending remittance to the employee's retirement annuities account.

730 Guaranty and Bid Deposits

The balance will represent the aggregate of amounts held by the fiscal officer on bids and guarantees. Subsidiary detail will be maintained to identify the amount held from each depositor for each purpose. Cash and securities should be separately recorded and identified in both the control and subsidiary accounts.

732 Deposits of Securities by Bank

The balance will represent the amounts held by the fiscal officer on securities. Subsidiary detail will be maintained to identify the amount held from each depositor for each purpose. Cash and securities should be separately recorded and identified in both the control and subsidiary accounts.

750 Foreign Fire Insurance Tax

The source of these funds may be the Town Supervisor, the N.Y.S. Insurance Department or Foreign or Alien Fire Insurance Corporations. This money may only be used for the benefit of the firefighters and must be paid over to the treasurer of the fire company.

806 Not in Spendable Form

The portion of fund balance that is inherently nonspendable in the current year because of its form. Examples include prepaid items, inventory, and non-financial assets held for resale.

807 Must Remain Intact

The portion of fund balance that is inherently nonspendable in the current year because it must remain intact. An example includes the principal amount of an endowment.

815 Unemployment Insurance Reserve

The portion of fund balance reserved for reimbursements to the State Unemployment Insurance Fund. This reserve would only be used if a district has elected to use the benefit reimbursement method.

821 Reserve for Encumbrances (Internal Accounting Code Only)

This account is no longer active for AUD reporting purposes; however, districts may still use this for accounting purposes during the year to track the amount of outstanding encumbrances. At year-end, any balance in the account should be closed out to fund balance.

827 Retirement Contributions Reserve

The portion of fund balance reserved for future payments of retirement contributions.

863 Insurance Reserve

The portion of fund balance reserved for payment of certain uninsured losses, claims, actions, or judgements for which the district is authorized or required to purchase or maintain insurance.
